Cohen's Lottery &amp; Exchange Office.

HOE SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, WEDNESDAY, June 30, 1824.

More Prizes from Cohen's.

The ninth drawing of the Washington Monument Lottery took place yesterday afternoon, the official account of which will be found on the opposite page—the only prizes drawn of importance, were TWO of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS, which came out to Nos. 6230 and 10022—Both were sold in whole tickets at COHEN'S OFFICE and are held in this city—thus continues the most unprecedented success attending investments at this office.

Only seven drawings remain to complete the MONUMENT scheme, and the great capitals of
TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS!
TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS!
TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS!
 2,000—1000's &c. still remain to be drawn.

The drawing will be continued on the 21st. July, on which day TICKETS WILL BE ADVANCED to TWELVE DOLLARS, in the mean time all orders which may be written and postmarked previous to that date, will be supplied at the following rates: viz.

Tickets, -	$ 10 00	Quarters, -	$ 2 50
Halves, -	5 00	Eighths, -	1 25

Orders from any part of the United States, either by mail (post paid) or by private conveyance, enclosing the Cash or prizes in any of the Baltimore Lotteries, will meet the same prompt and punctual attention as if on personal application, addressed to

J. I. COHEN, JR.

Sec'y to the Managers—BALTIMORE.

Half of the $10,000 Prize paid.

The only one of the great Capitals drawn last Thursday in the GRAND STATE LOTTERY, which has yet been presented for payment is the half of No. 20835, entitled to TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, owned by a Company in Kingston, New Jersey; one of whom, Mr. P. Withington, arrived here on Monday afternoon last, and instantly on presentation of the ticket at COHEN'S OFFICE, received the CASH, as usual. Connected with this, is an instance of expeditious travelling deserving notice: Mr. W. received our letter communicating the success of No. 20835, on Sunday last, and left home the same evening, and on arriving at Philadelphia took the Steam Boat and reached Baltimore Monday afternoon, a distance from his residence of One Hundred and Seventy miles in twenty hours without fatigue or inconvenience—such is the facility given to travellers by the establishment of Steam Boats.

Supplement to the Register.

This day's Register is accompanied by a supplement containing the list of last Thursday's drawing of the Grand State Lottery—we re-publish it, in order that if any of our last week's paper failed in reaching our customers and correspondents, a duplicate will be thus furnished—Adventurers holding prizes should forward them without delay to COHEN'S OFFICE, when the CASH will be immediately remitted, or the amount will be invested in the Monument Lottery, if directions be given to do so.

Monument Tickets will rise

TO TWELVE DOLLARS on the opening of the wheels at the next drawing which will take place on the 21st. July—in the mean time the price will continue at TEN DOLLARS, and shares in proportion.

Caution to distant Adventurers.

Direction of Letters.—We beg permission to request our friends and customers residing in distant places, to be particular in directing their letters to J. I. COHEN JR. No 114 Market St. BALTIMORE. It will thereby prevent mistakes in being sent to another office, the name of which on paper, appears similar, and to which we understand, several letters have lately been directed on the supposition that the name was ours.

CORPORATION STOCK.—Last week the whole of the City Corporation six per cent stocks, which were at that time redeemable, were converted into a stock bearing an interest of five per cent. This operation will save the city several thousand dollars annually.

NAVAL.—The following vessels of war, says the Washington Gazette, are now equipping for sea with all possible despatch, to wit; North Carolina, 74, Commodore Rodgers; Constellation, 44, Commodore Macdonough; Hornet, 22, Capt. Kennedy; Ontario, 22, Capt. Nicholson; Shark, 12, Lieut. Stevens; Porpoise, 12, Lieut. Skinner; Storeship Decoy, Lieut. Gamble.

Com. RODGERS left Washington in the steamboat for Norfolk, on Thursday morning last. It is understood that the object of his visit to Norfolk is connected with the fitting out of the North Carolina, 74.

HARVEST.—The Wheat harvest throughout Virginia promises to be remarkably fine. Some parcels of the new crop have already been sold in Richmond for $1 per bushel. A crop of Albemarle tobacco sold at an average of $11 a cwt. round.

War Department, Pension Office, June 19th, 1824.
Additional Regulations in regard to the Payment of Pensioners by the Agents.

No payment will in future be made to any Pensioner, either in person or by attorney, who has not applied for his pension for one year or more, without the production of evidence of his identity; the proof will consist of the certificate of a magistrate in the county in which the pensioner resides, setting forth, either that he knows the applicant to be the identical pensioner named in the original pension certificate, which he must exhibit to the magistrate, or that it has been satisfactorily proved before him, that he is such pensioner. The signature of the magistrate to be certified, under seal, by the Clerk of the Court of the County.

Foreign Intelligence.

Since our last, there have been some late arrivals at New York, bringing English dates to the 23 May.—They contain however, no news of importance:

The King's drawing room was held on the 20th, at St. James's Palace. It is the first drawing room that has been held there for ten years past. A vast number of the nobility and gentry, including the foreign ministers attended. We observe that our Minister, Mr. Rush was present—This grand display of beauty and court fashion, fills the London

Courier of the 21st. The name of each individual with their dress, title, &c. are given in full.

Many accidents, and some of them of a serious nature, occurred at the drawing room, which, it is said, was worse managed than was ever before known. The ruin and wreck of carriages were beyond all precedent; indeed, there were very few escaped without some injury. It was no uncommon thing to see a carriage moving upon three wheels, and hundreds had their pannels smashed to pieces. —Servants and horses fared very little better. —A beautiful animal belonging to the Marquis of Anglesea had the pole of a carriage driven through his body, and a footman belonging to another nobleman had his leg crushed in a shocking manner between two carriages. —Great numbers, both of ladies and gentlemen, could not get to their carriages at all, and were obliged to walk home through the streets in court dresses.

The particulars of the death of Lord Byron in Greece, occupies a portion of the English papers —great honors were paid to his remains by the public authorities at Missolonghi where he died.

The title of Lord BYRON descends to Captain Byron, well known for his escape in the Belvidere frigate, from the squadron under Com. Rodgers, during the late war.

Miscellaneous Items.

MARQUIS DE LA FAYETTE.—A young correspondent inquires, "of what age is Gen. LA FAYETTE? And when did he first come to America?" We answer, 66 years;—and that he arrived in the United States in 1777. We are not certain as to the last particular. Some American accounts say, in 1776, but a Paris paper of April 1777, announced his departure a few days before; and the fact agrees with the date of the Resolve of Congress, of the 31st July, 1777, accepting the proffer of his services, and appointing him Major-General. He was wounded in Sept. 1777, in the battle at Brandywine. He went to France in 1779, and returned in 1780. Whether he retains his title of Marquis, or not, we cannot say positively.—Centinel.

Bear Hunt.—On Tuesday last, at sunset, a large Bear was seen to cross the public road, in Winhall, Bennington county.—Ten or 12 men and boys immediately turned out, armed with muskets and clubs; old Bruin was soon surrounded, and finding his retreat cut off, and a dog at his heels, he ascended a tree, where, at an elevation of 30 feet, he anxiously waited the motion of his pursuers. The darkness concealing him, one of the hunters, Dr. Leonard, climbed a neighboring tree, from whence the first fire jostled Bruin from his seat; but catching a limb by one paw, he recovered his position and received a second dose of "blue pills" without winking; the third brought him to the ground—he recovered and ran twenty rods before he fell to rise no more. He measured in length 5 feet 8 inches, in girth 3 feet 10 inches, and was estimated to weigh 350 lbs.—Brattleboro's paper.

"I will see you paid."—A case was recently decided in England, by which a debt of £122 18s. was recovered of a man who casually, in conversation said, you need not be afraid to trust Mr. Frost; I'll see you paid. The defendant, it seems, only intended to convey the idea, that he would see the money paid as soon as his friend could get it. But he was legally bound by the word see, and had to pay it.

Blackbeard.—A new American comedy entitled "Blackbeard," has lately been published at the South. The scene is laid in Currituck county, N. Carolina; and the author is Lemuel Sawyer, Esq. a member of Congress from that State.
